

HOME OF H. D. PEASE ROBBED OF $25,000

Burglars Ransack Every Room in Absence of Family and Servants.

MANY HEIRLOOMS TAKEN

Front Door Jimmied—Finger Prints Are Only Clue to the Thieves.

Burglars entered the home of Harry D. Pease, president of the Pease Piano Company, at 321 West Eighty-eighth street, sometime between 7:30 and 9:45 o'clock Saturday night and stole jewelry, bonds and cash valued at more than $25,000. Mr. Pease, his wife and their son, Archibald D. Pease, were automobiled, and the servants had been given the evening off.

When Mr. and Mrs. Pease drew up in front of the house on their return Mrs. Pease noticed the shades had been drawn on the first floor windows. Glancing up the stoop, she observed the front door was ajar, which caused her to surmise something was wrong, as the servants were not due to return until later. Mr. Pease summoned a policeman and they entered the house.

Virtually every room in the four-story brown stone building had been ransacked. Drawers had been pulled out and their contents strewn about the floors, tables and chairs upset and two trunks and two suitcases were missing. A hurried glance through the various rooms showed the robbers had made a clean job of it, taking practically everything they could stuff into the bags and suitcases.

Detectives from the West 100th street station found jimmy marks on the front door. Inside they discovered finger prints which may prove valuable in solving the robbery. The detectives obtained an inventory of the articles stolen.

Women's Club Barred For Cigarette Smoking

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

VENTNOR, N. J., May 8.—The janitor of the Ventnor City Hall has been shocked several times after a meeting of a women's club in the City Hall because he always found cigarette butts scattered over the floor and the desks and tables littered with empty boxes and ashes.

When this happened time after time he notified Mayor Brennan and the Mayor told the City Council. The Council, after it had recovered somewhat from its horror, adopted a resolution barring the women from meeting in the City Hall. The club hasn't heard of it yet, but a row is expected when it does.

but Mr. Pease was reluctant to make this public and the detectives would not. Other than to say the lost consisted of jewelry, bonds and cash, Mr. Pease would not describe the missing articles. Mrs. Pease explained, however, that many of the articles were heirlooms.

MAN'S MOTOR CAR NOW HELD TO BE HIS CASTLE

Dry Agents Cannot Search It Without Warrant.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BALTIMORE, May 8.—Attorney-General Armstrong has ruled that a man's automobile, like his home, is his castle, and that prohibition enforcement officials may not enter it unless they have a warrant.

The Attorney-General declared that it was as equally necessary to have a warrant to search a man's car as it was to enter and search his house.

Though the decision is rendered only for one county, it is held that it automatically applies to the rest of the State, except where there are local laws to offset it.

WHOLE QUART IN CLUB

'Retired Banker' and Woman
Are Seized at Table in the Maurice.

Detectives Thomas Quinn and Clarence Weaver of the West Forty-seventh street police station started out last night on a booze hunting expedition. Half an hour later they called up the station and announced they had a saloon on their hands that they did not know what to do with.

It all happened this way: Quinn and Weaver, according to their own stories, were walking up Eighth avenue and they happened to glance into the saloon of Gallagher Bros. at 887. Six men were lined up at the bar, so the booze hunters decided to go in. They asked for the proprietor or bartender, but neither appeared to be in evidence, so they embarked on a search.

All was well behind the bar, so they went to the cellar and at first glance saw nothing unlawful. A careful search, however, resulted in the unearthing of a half pint flask from a small coal stove. There was about a gill of whiskey in the bottle.

Quinn and Weaver hurried up stairs to find the place deserted. The detectives sat down and waited an hour for the proprietor or bartender to return, but neither appeared, so they telephoned to the station and asked that a policeman be sent to relieve them until they find out what to do with the saloon and twenty barrels of near beer in the cellar.

Edward Walter Whitman, who described himself as a retired banker, living at 640 Madison avenue, was held in $1,000 bail yesterday for having a quart of whiskey in his possession. He was arrested Saturday night in the Club Maurice by detectives of Inspector Boatler's staff, who said they found Mr. Whitman sitting at a table on which rested the bottle of booze. Across from the banker sat a woman who described herself as Miss Stuyvesant. The latter became indignant at the arrest of her escort, the detective said, and harassed the diners on the course of prohibition.

William H. Anderson, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, speaking in the Ocean Avenue Congregational Church, Brooklyn, predicted that within twenty years all opposition to national prohibition will have disappeared.

KNIGHTS FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS.
The Knights of Columbus launched a campaign against tuberculosis yesterday with an announcement by James A. Flaherty, supreme knight, of the appointment of a committee to investigate causes and cures. Dr. E. W. Buckley of St. Paul, formerly vice-president of the American Medical Association, is chairman. The other members are Dr. Stephen J. Maher, chairman of the Connecticut Tuberculosis Commission; Dr. John P. O'Brien, chairman of the trustees of Consumptive Hospital Department, Boston; Thomas A. Lawler, Lansing, Mich.; and James L. O'Toole, Aspinwall, Pa.

Wholesale raids are promised. The entire north country will be combed thoroughly for evaders of the statute, and all of its immense quantities of liquor will be confiscated. Additional deputies to act in conjunction with the men stationed here are asked for in a request sent to Henry Holland, Collector of the northern port at Ogdensburg.

NEW DRY LID GOES ON CANADIAN BORDER

Officials of Northern Counties
Plan Drastic Drive.

MALONE, N. Y., May 8.—Rigorous enforcement of the Mullan-Gage prohibition law will begin at once against bootlegging activities on the Canadian frontier as a result of action taken yesterday when combined State, county and Government officials representing four northern New York counties gathered and mapped out plans of procedure. These plans, said to be the most important yet drawn up, were made behind closed doors from which all except officers were excluded, and were not made public after the meeting ended. Officials from the counties of Franklin, Clinton, St. Lawrence and Essex attended.

Wholesale raids are promised. The entire north country will be combed thoroughly for evaders of the statute, and all of its immense quantities of liquor will be confiscated. Additional deputies to act in conjunction with the men stationed here are asked for in a request sent to Henry Holland, Collector of the northern port at Ogdensburg.

AUSTRALIA GOING DRY, SAYS ANTI-WET HERE

New Zealand Likely to Vote
Down Booze Next Year.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., May 8.—Arthur Toombes, State superintendent of the prohibition forces in Queensland, Australia, came to Washington to-day for a conference with Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel of the Anti-Saloon League. He said he believed Australia would adopt national prohibition within the next ten years.

New Zealand, Mr. Toombes predicted, is likely to go dry next year. In an election there recently the prohibition forces were only 2,000 votes short of carrying their cause. Mr. Toombes said Australia is watching the effect of prohibition in the United States.

"Much depends," said he, "on the results in America, as the issue in Australia now is whether prohibition can be enforced and sustained, and the United States is the experimental point."

DR. BARUCH RESTS QUIETLY.
Physicians attending Dr. Simon Baruch, who has been ill for a week with heart disease in his home, 51 West Seventieth street, reported yesterday the aged physician had a good night and was resting quietly. Dr. Baruch's heart had been reported as weakened considerably by an attack of pneumonia a year ago.
